

Small boat operations are always fun with "Barnacle Bob" Trutter. Here are the decks preparing to re-launch the ice buoy. BM3 Irey shows that splicing line really can be fun. There is everyone's favorite job: foc'sle inheanding. If trying out for the rodeo sounds like fun, try throwing heaving lines to work on lassoing skills. SA Reed ready to go as the Rescue Swimmer. Here was a typical day inport with the decks putting the cadets to work. Messcooking in the chief's mess is something SA Chilton will never forget. Boat ops with BM3 Bowser always guaranteed an interesting time for all involved.

