

MEDCAPS

The people of South Viet Nam are not only fighting the Viet Cong, but are also fighting malnutrition, sickness, and disease. On several occasions we were able to assist them in a very small way in fighting this second war. Our accomplishments were small compared to the tremendous needs of the Vietnamese people, but the smiles on the villagers' faces were proof enough that our efforts were worthwhile.

