

Twice we received a visit from the squadron's circuit-riding preacher, Chaplain Mitchell. Traveling from ship to ship via high line, the Chaplain was continually on the go and never able to stay in one place for very long. When aboard, however, he added something special to the Sunday morning church services and was an inspiration and help to many of us.

