

RADAR MEN

Radarman (RD). Radarmen are stationed on all types of ships and small craft and at some shore stations. The radarman must know the function and operating principles of all radar equipment on board and be able to use such equipment in tracking and searching, in intercepting aircraft and surface vessels, during MLE patrols. He or she interprets and plots all information received, makes routine tests and adjustments, and performs minor repairs.

