

SONAR TECHNICIANS

Sonar Technician (ST). They serve on ships fitted with sonar equipment, at training stations, and at certain district offices. They interpret sonic and magnetic information received by electronic and magnetic defense equipment; they may use international Morse code in transmitting and receiving messages on sonar equipment; operate sonar countermeasures equipment where installed; perform routine tests and adjustments on equipment, and make minor repairs.

