

CHRISTMAS 1968

Christmas Day aboard the ING-HAM was a typical busy day on Market Time. Between two UN-REPS we had church services, and later in the day a barbecue on the fantail. An extra large load of mail and packages brought a big boost to the morale of all.

