One Hundred and Forty days and Six Thousand Eight Hundred and Thirty Three miles after leaving Honolulu the KUKUI returned.

The trip was very successful with the exception of a few personal injuries. Many of the new men "made their bones" while some of the older hands headed for new stations, schools, or just out.

The weather upon arrival was miserable but it didn't dampen anybody's spirits and there were numerous joyful reunions.

It was great to have been able to pick up a few new sea stories but it was even better to get back and be able to tell them.
