

These men take their work seriously.

Some crew members were fortunate enough to observe the Panamanian riot squad practicing riot control maneuvers.

The Pan American building, one of the many structures that were machine gunned during the 1964 Anti-American riots.

Standing amidst the ruins of the Cathedral, Allen Dean, Bill Dixon and Willy Garrison had a good view of the squad in action.

