

NAVAL GUN FIRE SUPPORT

We were often called upon to put our fire power to use in support of friendly troops in the area, and for targets of military importance on or near the beach. The Owasco soon gained a fine reputation among units in the area for her constant readiness and skill in performing her assigned duties.

Above: ET3 Boltjes has to fight to keep 'em at times.

Right Above: SN Vee and SN Conklin held those babies gently.

Right: SA Engleholm, MMI Garret, FN Coleman, SN Lango, SK 3 Sawicki.

