

Top Left: A replica of Captain Cook's ship, the "Endeavor". Cook, famous for his world wide expeditions was the first foreigner to map New Zealand. Bottom Left: J.C. wondering if any lass in Wellington will be graced by his presence. Bottom Right: The "Sea" nestled at the International Pier. Top Right: The brow is readied for some long awaited use. Top Middle: The "Ngahue" leads the way into Wellington.