

The BT's, Boilermen (not "Boiler Tenders" you notice), are the crew that hangs out down in the Fireroom. That's the place just aft of the mess deck and a "few" steps down. We take great pains to keep "Huff" and "Puff" looking bright as well as keeping that pressure gage steady on 400. Our leader is CWO Mobley, who will always remain "the Chief" to us. When underway, Narron, Tito, and Rodgers watch number one, while Rosas, May, and Awana keep an eye on number two. Jackson, Watts, Arnett, and Coddington stand oiler watches and keep the place looking spiffy. We take a lot of pride in the Fireroom. Stop down and see us sometime and we will be glad to show you around.

Kneeling: FN Mike Watts, FN Greg Awana, BT2 Manaomia Tito. Front: FN Bruce Coddington, FN Ken Arnett, BT3 Tom May, BT1 Troy Narron, CWO-2 Hugh Mobley. Rear: FA Rocky Jackson, BT3 Tom Rosas, BT3 Roy Rodgers.
