

The YAK pulled in to what would soon be a familiar berth alongside JASON.

ARRIVAL SUBIC.

On 10 May the Squadron arrived in Subic Bay, which would be our home port for the next 8 months. The Base and the town of Olangapo held new excitement and unprecedented thrills for all "hands". The YAK moved its headquarters to the Top Three and all business was conducted in that stimulating atmosphere.

Some of us still have vivid memories of Olangapo.

"I have heard of selling model airplanes in the exchange, but ..."

"Who dat dere?"
